Luther announces the appointment of Robert Goerend as Partner

Luxembourg – Luther in Luxembourg is pleased to announce the appointment of Robert Goerend as Partner

Robert Goerend has been appointed Partner within the Corporate/M&A and Dispute Resolution practices. He joined Luther in 2010, when the firm opened the Luxembourg office. His experience includes advising clients on commercial and corporate law, with a particular emphasis on advising start-ups, corporate insolvencies, and dispute resolution, including shareholders' disputes, directors' liability, and insolvency proceedings. He was admitted to Luxembourg Bar in 2011.

Eric Sublon, Managing Partner at Luther in Luxembourg, comments: "Robert's appointment certainly recognizes the contribution he has made to our firm by delivering sound legal advice since it opened for business in Luxembourg in 2010, but it also reflects the strong commitment that Luther places in career development and retention. All of us at Luther certainly look forward to working with him as he strengthens even further the services offered by the Corporate/M&A and Dispute Resolution practices".

Brief Profile Luther
