JUVE Awards 2015: Luther is the "Law Firm of the Year for Distribution / Sales / Logistics"

Cologne – Luther was recognized as the "Law Firm of the Year for Distribution / Sales / Logistics" by specialized publisher JUVE. The JUVE Awards are the most important honours in the law firm industry. They are distributed annually to the best law firms in Germany. The jury's decision is based, among other factors, on year-round research into firms' work with clients as well as on ratings from clients and competitors.

Volker Steimle, who manages the division of Commercial and Distribution Law at Luther, said: "Our team is very happy to receive this award - in particular because JUVE has already honoured our firm once before, in 2011, as "Firm of the Year for Distribution Systems." A second award within such a short time period is absolutely remarkable."

"These two awards show that we are well-established as an international full service firm in this consulting field," says Volker Steimle: "One reason is certainly that colleagues in our team who specialize in distribution law, antitrust law, commercial law, or logistics, those who specialize in contract design, and those in the areas of litigation/arbitration work together in a very seasoned and close collaboration." Luther's distribution law practice also has well-developed international contacts – for instance in Asian business and in North and South America, and we are seen as one of the leading law firms in German-Italian legal relations.

With a team of approx. 25 attorneys, Luther has an extensive distribution law practice. Some of Luther's clients include Harley-Davidson, Fiat, Fiege, and Makita. You can find more information on Luther's website.
