JUVE Awards: “Triple Crown” for Luther

Award for Law Firm of the Year 2014 for Regulated Industries; Energy Law; and Private Construction Law

Cologne – The annual JUVE awards, sponsored by the publishing house of the same name, are the most prestigious awards in the German legal market. At yesterday's awards, Luther achieved recognition as Law Firm of the Year 2014 in 3 key areas: Regulated Industries; Energy law; and Private Construction law. Moreover, Luther was nominated in the category Real Estate Law as Law Firm of the Year 2014.

Based on a detailed market analysis the JUVE Awards are granted annually by the well-established German legal publishing house JUVE. Each year the editors honour German Law firms and in-house lawyers which have successfully positioned themselves in the market by offering excellent advisory service and by showing an innovative strategic development.

In its laudation for the “Law Firm of the Year for Regulated Industries” the JUVE editors especially praised that “Luther’s advice on current topics is always up-to-date. Furthermore, the young partners succeed in strengthening the internal network by interweaving the expertise available at different offices of Luther”. Furthermore, the JUVE jury points out that “Luther has become a major player in the energy sector and is now an established advisor – also for large energy companies.”

Dr Markus Sengpiel, Co-Managing Partner at Luther:

“We are very proud to receive these awards. They are an affirmation of the high quality which Luther offers when advising in these strategically important sectors. At the same time the awards reflect the outstanding development of our law firm. These awards underline that the consistent implementation of our integrated full-service approach has proven successful. This approach allows us to provide tailor-made advice to our national and international clients. The success also shows clearly how it pays off to anticipate promising advisory issues at an early stage and to occupy them sustainably. We are going to build on this success.”

Brief Profile Luther
