Luther appoints five new partners

Cologne, 21 June 2011 – By resolution at its partners meeting, Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH has appointed five new partners with effect as of 1 July 2011.

The new partners are Dr Gernot-Rüdiger Engel (Public Business Law, Hamburg), Dr Frank Lohse (Corporate Law/M&A, Dresden), Dr Volker Schulenburg (Corporate Law/M&A, Hamburg), Katrin Süßbrich (Employment Law, Cologne) and Denis Ullrich (Corporate Law/M&A, Leipzig).

“All five partners started their careers as associates at Luther and have undergone excellent professional development by dealing independently with exciting and complex matters,” said Managing Partner Prof Dr Hans-Georg Hahn. “Committed young lawyers with a convincing performance and personality have a realistic opportunity of becoming partners at Luther, and they make use of this opportunity.” By offering a clearly defined career path and intensively promoting professional and social competencies, Luther provides a first-class platform for ambitious young lawyers.

Dr Markus Sengpiel, who is also a Managing Partner at Luther, added: “Accompanying our professionals on a long-term basis with their career paths guarantees the quality of our advisory services: by encouraging and supporting lawyers and tax advisors who are economically competent and well educated, we ensure that our clients obtain first-rate advice.”
