Luther in Luxembourg hosts Annual Oktoberfest

Luxembourg – On 27 September 2018, Luther welcomed international and local clients, business partners, and fellow lawyers from Luther’s German offices to celebrate the 7th edition of its Annual Oktoberfest at the FNEL – Scouten in Luxembourg.

In a typical Bavarian setting, the traditional festivities started with the “O’zapft is” ceremony, when the first keg of beer is tapped, and continued throughout the evening with authentic drinks, food, and music.

Eric Sublon, Managing Partner of Luther Luxembourg, said, “Over the years our Annual Oktoberfest has become a great occasion to share the firm’s German roots with our longstanding and new international and local clients, business partners, and fellow German colleagues. During this edition of Oktoberfest, it was a pleasure to introduce to our guests Bob Scharfe, our newly appointed Banking, Finance and Capital Markets Partner. I would like to thank all our guests for participating and contributing to the event’s success and sincerely look forward to welcoming them again next year.”
